Tasting Notes: While some Petit Verdots may be overly tannic and in need of long-term cellaring, this one carries a voluptuous, silky quality that makes it instantly enjoyable. At its core, you'll find blackberry and Ligurian cherry fruit with gentle touches of black tea and plum skin on the finish. Coupled with a splash of acidity in the background for added balance, this may be one of the most approachable, ready-to-drink Petit Verdots you've ever tasted. 100% Petit Verdot sourced from Wahluke Slope.

2023 Awards: Best of Class, 91 Points - Savor NW.
