Winemaker: Victor Palencia

Tasting Notes: Victor Palencia’s 10th edition of Casa Amarilla, a blend that has not changed in percentages since its first vintage, the eyes are met with a dark purple color while the nose has hints of plum and cola opening to raspberry and some violets. Underneath there is a cocoa element that is nice but not overpowering. Soft tannins and black fruits give a pleasant drinking experience.

Retail Price: $36
